MONTANA LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

OFFICE OF THE CLERK

SESSION
CALENDAR
TO BE KEPT

Ms. Carolyn Kenton of the Council of State Governments Lexington office presented the report of the CSG's Interstate Consulting Clearinghouse team concerning Legislative staffing and personnel administration in Montana. Copies of the final report will be available around September 1.

The Legislative Council will keep a master calendar of events scheduled around the 1981 session. This service should help in avoiding scheduling conflicts. The Council must rely on individuals and organizations who wish to sponsor events such as dinners to inform Kathy Thompson (406) 449-3064, if the calendar is to be successful.

The Council also reviewed and approved its budget for the next biennium. The next meeting is set for September 13.

Council staff will conduct a bill drafting seminar for both government personnel and private persons involved in bill drafting on August 7 and 8 in the SRS auditorium. The seminar will emphasize fundamentals of bill drafting and questions and discussion will be encouraged.

Draft legislation will be submitted to interested persons before final action at the September meeting. Anyone interested in further details of the discussion proposals and Committee action may contact Deborah Schmidt, Committee researcher.

During the Tuesday working session, the Committee's actuary, Alton Hendrickson, presented a cost-of-living report to the Committee.
